Time: 10:30am to11:30am

Dr. S. R. Ranganathan 132nd birth anniversary is celebrated on 12 August 2024. He is considered as a Father of Library and Information Science in India and his contributions to the field are his five laws of library science and the development of the first major faceted classification system, the colon classification used widely in libraries today. To observe his contribution is birth date is celebrated as National Librarian Day all over India. In the present this programme is organized by IQAC and Department of Library on Wednesday 12th August 2024 at 10:30 am.

Objectives:

1. To honor Dr. Ranganathan's pioneering work in library science and his role in shaping modern librarianship in India.
2. To introduce faculty members to the N-List platform and its features.
3. To provide hands-on training in accessing and using e-books, e-journals, and other academic resources available through N-List.

Descriptions of the Activity:

Our Principal Dr. Shivling Menkundale inaugurated the program, IQAC coordinator Dr. Mrs. Jayashri Aphale addressed about the Dr. Ranganathan's contribution in library science in India. Libraries are important for research, information, knowledge and pleasure of reading. Libraries provide perfect environment to enjoy the reading peacefully. As a part of other activities, the Department of Library organized a 'One Day Library E-Resources Orientation Program on INFLIBNET N-List for faculty members'. Which was coordinated by Mrs. Asha Jirage Librarian. The E-Resources Orientation Program on INFLIBNET N-List proved to be a valuable initiative in promoting the effective use of digital academic resources among faculty members. The program successfully met its objectives of raising awareness and improving e-resource utilization, contributing to the enhancement of research and teaching practices in the institution. The program was very insightful and it gave the faculty sufficient information on INFLIBNET N-List programme.

Beneficiaries:

All the teachers and non-teaching staff members were present on this occasion.

Outcomes:

Faculty members gained an understanding of the INFLIBNET N-List platform and its vast repository of academic content. Participants learned how to navigate the N-List platform, perform searches, and access e-resources relevant to their disciplines.
