

Rayat Shikshan Sanstha's

Savitribai Phule Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Satara.

Department of Library: 2024-25

“ Book Exhibition Report ”

Day and Date: Tuesday 15/10/2024

Time: 10.00 to 05.00

Introduction:

On the occasion of Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam birth anniversary and Vachan Perana Dim Book Exhibition was organized by Savitribai Phule Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Satara's Department of Library. The exhibition was inaugurated by Shri. Pradip Hivarkar, Life Worker of Rayat Shikshan Sanstha and Hon. Principal Dr. Shivling Menkundale, Joint Secretary, Rayat Shikshan Sanstha, Satara along with Library Advisory Committee members, faculty members and Library Staff. It was open for the students and staff between 10.00 am to 5.00 pm. with a focus on autobiographies that celebrate the lives of legendary figures such as Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, Karmveer Bhaurao Patil, and influential women from various fields. The exhibition aimed to inspire students, faculty, and the public by showcasing the struggles, achievements, and contributions of these personalities in shaping the social, political, and educational landscape.

Objective:

- Introduce readers to the personal narratives and experiences of notable historical figures.
- Highlight the importance of reading autobiographies to gain insights into leadership, perseverance, and social reform.
- Celebrate the contributions of women in various domains such as politics, education, literature, and social work.

Description of Activity:

The exhibition was inaugurated by Mr. Pradip Hivarkar who spoke about the importance of reading autobiographies to learn from the past. He further said that guest lectures should be organized, where experts shared insights on the leadership qualities of Shivaji Maharaj, the social reform efforts of Bhaurao Patil, and the role of women in shaping modern India. Which will help students to get the knowledge of their contribution.

1. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj:

The exhibition featured several books on the life and achievements of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, including renowned autobiographical accounts. These works offered readers a glimpse into his military strategies, administrative brilliance, and efforts to establish the Maratha Empire. Special attention was given to books detailing his vision of Swarajya (self-rule).

2. Karmveer Bhaurao Patil:

Karmveer Bhaurao Patil, the pioneer of the Rayat Shikshan Sanstha, was another focal point of the exhibition. Books chronicling his efforts in promoting education among the underprivileged and rural sections of society were prominently displayed. His vision for mass education and the foundation of earn and learn schemes left a lasting legacy, especially in the field of education.

3. Women in Various Fields:

A special section was dedicated to showcasing autobiographies and biographies of women who have made significant contributions in different areas. Books on Savitribai Phule, Indira Gandhi, Kalpana Chawla, Lata Mangeskar, and Mother Teresa, among others, were exhibited. These works celebrated their achievements and highlighted the challenges they overcame in a patriarchal society.

Beneficiaries:

All the teachers, non-teaching staff and students were visit to the book exhibition.

Outcomes:

- A significant number of attendees, including students and faculty, expressed a newfound interest in reading autobiographies and biographies after the exhibition. Many were inspired to read more about these figures to gain deeper insights into their lives.
- The exhibition successfully enhanced awareness about the contributions of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj and Karmveer Bhaurao Patil among the younger generation, particularly regarding their leadership and social reform efforts.
- The section on women achievers encouraged discussions on gender equality and women's empowerment. Attendees, especially female students, felt motivated to pursue their dreams by learning about the challenges and accomplishments of women in different fields.
